The future in wireless solutions

the system

The Enforcer is a completely two-way wireless control panel using wireless devices manufactured by Pyronix.

Two-way wireless technology is a vital part of the system that keeps it safe and reliable, and in turn provides a major advantage to you, the installer.

The one-push-to-learn feature in all wireless devices means that learning devices onto the system can be done in seconds.

Signal Strength Indicators (SSI) in all wireless devices means that you can position devices without the need to refer back to the panel.

Instant two-way device control enables immediate wake-up and sleep of devices, preserving battery power whilst maintaining a highly secure system.

Fully menu driven programming with YES/NO questions allows for quick and simple installing, saving you time and money.

Your own system, unique to you
