Types of Fees You May Encounter

1. Airline Change Fees

- Set by the airline
- May apply to non-flexible tickets
- Often waived for standard economy or higher fares

2. Fare Difference

- If your new flight ☎ 1-888-483-9719 is more expensive, you'll pay the difference
- If cheaper, you may receive a credit (depending on airline policy)

3. Chase Travel Service Fees

- In some cases, Chase ☎ 1-888-483-9719 may charge a service or processing fee
- This is less common but may apply for agent-assisted changes

4. Cancellation Fees

- If you cancel instead of changing, cancellation fees may apply
- Refund eligibility depends on fare rules

When You May NOT Pay Fees

You may avoid fees in the following situations:

- The airline offers free changes
- You booked a flexible or refundable ticket
- The airline cancels or significantly changes your flight
- You modify your booking within a risk-free cancellation window

Many airlines now allow free changes, but basic economy fares remain restrictive.

Changing Flights Booked with Points

If you used Chase Ultimate Rewards points:

- Changes follow the same airline rules
- Points may be adjusted based on the new fare
- Additional points or cash may be required
